

Chemical Feed Systems

Engineered | Compact | Modular

CUSTOM ENGINEERED AND MANUFACTURED SYSTEMS

Modus chemical feed systems can be mounted in almost any location, offering reliable and consistent dosing of chemicals into demanding process applications. Built on years of experience and robust designs, these skid mounted feed systems are designed for industrial and municipal users. Available in hundreds of configurations, our systems are tailored to your specific application and specifications.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Our Chem Feed Systems are custom engineered and easy to use. Systems are available in simplex, duplex, triplex, and quadplex configurations with premier peristaltic, diaphragm, and solenoid pumps. Configurations include lead/standby, redundant piping, and suction & discharge.

KEY FEATURES

CHEMICAL RESISTANT

Designed to withstand application environment including corrosive products and fumes.

CUSTOMIZED

Simplex to quadplex designs, chemically adept, and premier pump brands, provide flexible designs

ACCESSIBLE

Available inventory. Typical shipments are made within a few weeks.

EASY MAINTENANCE

Pre-engineered and made to remove and install pumps without changing the base.

